SPIKE'D Q & A

WHO'S YOUR FAVORITE NEW YORKER, LIVING OR DEAD, REAL OR FICTIONAL?

Malcolm X. If someone asks why, they gotta read The Autobiography of Malcolm X. Next question.

WHAT'S THE BEST MEAL YOU'VE EATEN IN NEW YORK?

Too many to answer. Next.

IN ONE SENTENCE, WHAT DO YOU ACTUALLY DO ALL DAY ON YOUR JOB?

Work. W-O-R-K.

WHAT WAS YOUR FIRST JOB IN NEW YORK?

I had a New York City job for youth, when I was like 17 or 19, scooping ice cream at Baskin Robbins in Brooklyn Heights. It's not there anymore, but it was at the corner of Montague and Clinton. It was a job! My flavor is Butter Pecan.

WHAT'S THE LAST THING YOU SAW ON BROADWAY?

The last thing I saw was Motown the Musical, for the fourth time. I love it.

WHAT'S YOUR DRINK?

I like Champagne.

HOW OFTEN DO YOU PREPARE YOUR OWN MEALS?

I don't cook. I don't even boil water.

WHICH DO YOU PREFER, THE OLD TIMES SQUARE OR THE NEW TIMES SQUARE?

Old. This one's too clean [laughs]. It's not just clean, it's antiseptic.

WHAT IS THE BEST THING IN OR ABOUT YOUR APARTMENT?

My house? Great artwork. I collect photographs, paintings, sculptures. I have some Jacob Lawrence, Gordon Parks, James Van Der Zee photographs, Andy Warhol prints, Basquiat drawings, and a lot of movie posters. I love it all.

WHAT'S THE CRAZIEST THING YOU'VE EVER SEEN ON THE SUBWAY?

I just remember that growing up, we used to ride between the cars. Back then you had one chain and you were out the subway car. You can't do that anymore. Usually the only time I ride the subway today is when I'm going to Yankee Stadium.

WHAT MAKES SOMEONE A NEW YORKER?

That'll take four hours to answer that. You know it when you see it.

WHAT DO YOU HATE MOST ABOUT LIVING IN NEW YORK?

Well, I just come from a different era and it's just getting so expensive. I just fear that New York City is going to lose its heart and soul because if you're not a millionaire you're not going to be able to live here. And we're getting close to that point.

IF YOU COULD BANISH ONE PERSON FROM NEW YORK, WHO WOULD IT BE?

I'm not going to answer that question. Nope.

FINISH THIS SENTENCE: THE NYPD _____

I'm not answering that question. Next. Next question.

TIMES, POST, OR DAILY NEWS?

I get a lot of stuff online. But I read the Daily News and Times daily, sports section first.

WHERE DO YOU GO TO BE ALONE?

My offices.
